Fumble Recovered 10-12, 14-31 * Lost Ball 13, 32-35

Indianapolis Colts (14-2) 1st Place AFC North #1 Seed Division Winner, AFC Champion

Key Players Off: P. Manning (earned 4th MVP an NFL Record), J. Addai, R. Wayne Def: C. Session, R. Mathis, A. Bethea

The Colts ended the season with the best regular season record in the league, and a solid argument could be made that they were the best team in 2009. Their two losses came in the final two weeks of the season as rookie coach J. Caldwell elected to rest his starters saving them for the playoffs. The 9th ranked offense relied significantly more on the passing game than in previous years passing 62% of the time, and as a result the running game was last in the league. Manning ranked 2nd in passing yards, but his 16 INTs were his most since 2001. The defense was functional, but did have problems stopping the run. The Colts rolled through the playoffs and were the Super Bowl favorites, but Manning threw a 4th quarter pick that sealed the 31-17 win for the Saints.
